

Psychology Board of Australia

REGISTRATION STANDARD: GENERAL REGISTRATION

2 May 2016

Summary

This registration standard sets out the Psychology Board of Australia's requirements for the general registration of psychologists. General registration as a psychologist may be granted to individuals who meet requirements set out in this registration standard and in the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law, as in force in each state and territory ('the National Law').

Does this standard apply to me?

This standard applies to all applicants for general registration and applicants for renewal of general registration as a psychologist.

Qualification requirements

The minimum qualification required to be qualified to apply for general registration is:

- a) a four-year accredited sequence of study in psychology that has been approved by the Board as providing a qualification for registration in the profession, that has been completed within the last ten years, or
- b) an overseas qualification that in the Board's opinion is substantially equivalent to a).

To be eligible for general registration as a psychologist, in addition to the minimum qualification applicants must have completed a postgraduate degree accredited as fifth and sixth year of study in psychology, or another approved program of supervised practice and training as detailed in the eligibility requirements part e) below.

Eligibility requirements

In order to apply for general registration a six year sequence of education and training is required.

In addition to holding the minimum qualification, applicants must meet the following eligibility requirements:

- a) the individual must be a suitable person to hold general registration as a psychologist under the National Law
- b) the individual must not be disqualified under the National Law, or the law of a co-regulatory jurisdiction, from applying for registration, or being registered, in the psychology profession
- c) the individual must meet all other requirements stated in approved registration standards for the psychology profession that apply to general registration¹
- d) the individual must provide evidence of having passed the National Psychology Examination (unless exempt)²
- e) the individual must have successfully completed a Board-approved supervised practice and training program while registered as a provisional psychologist.
The Board has determined that the supervised practice program requirement must be met by successfully completing one of the following:
 - i. a Board-approved postgraduate qualification accredited as a fifth and sixth year of study, or
 - ii. all fifth and sixth year-level coursework and practicum of a Board-approved postgraduate qualification accredited as a fifth, sixth and seventh year of study, and having made sufficient progress in the research thesis, or
 - iii. a Board-approved qualification accredited as a fifth year of study followed by successful completion of a Board-approved 5+1 internship program³, or
 - iv. a Board-approved 4+2 internship program⁴, or
 - v. an overseas qualification and supervised practice assessed by the Board as substantially
